BEST PRACTICE- 2

Sharing & Giving - Connecting with Society

Andhra Christian College is a Christian Minority Institution, the prime concern is sharing and Giving – Connecting to the society through education as a channel to transform the students for building the Nation. To inculcate social responsibility among students, various Community Service Programmes and social conscious activities are organized.

Objectives of the Practice:

- To create opportunities to every student to experience ‘Joy of Giving’ by reaching out to the needy.
- To instill in the minds for the students the spirit of Patriotism to become useful citizens.
- To strengthen the idea of “sharing is caring” among the young minds through ‘reaching out to the underprivileged sections of the society’.
- To motivate the students about the motto of “Not me but YOU” by involving in charity works.
- To connect with the society by synchronizing Communal Harmony and Fraternity.

The Context: The objective of Andhra Christian College, Guntur is to “motivate students to become intellectually competent, morally upright, socially committed, emotionally stable, spiritually inspired patriotic Citizens of India”.

The Practice:

- The financial aid provided by contribution of Management and the Staff, could save the life of a poor Child's family
- The students are motivated to generously offer their services at times of need.
- The Management and Staff donate fund to the stakeholders when they are in trouble.

Implementation of the practice:

To enrich the spirit of service, the Poor students fund, Red Ribbon Club, NCC and NSS Unit participates in several Charity activities by visits to

- Old age homes
- Orphan Homes
- Blind Hostels
- Centres for Disabled

Fund is generated from the management and staff.

Evidence of Success:

- Realize the role of students as more responsible citizens of the Nation motivating them through team spirit to play a prominent role in building a better society.

- Over the period of last few years, several organizations in Guntur have been supported with aid.
- Many of the students have often shared their happiness of being touched with the experience they had during the visit.
- The Social Outreach Program has always received consistent support from the student and teaching fraternity.
- The efforts of Andhra Christian College, Guntur in reaching out to the needy with the Merciful deeds have been appreciated by the authorities of various organizations.

Problems encountered and resources required:

- There are various organizations in the vicinity of Guntur district that require financial help. Identifying the set of people / organization that genuinely needs are surveyed.
- Motivating the students to participate and offer their service was a challenging job.
- Since the Institution is a Non-profit Organization, mobilization of funds was the limitation.
- Many Organizations are in Financial Need
- Motivating the Students to Challenges

Strategies adopted to overcome:

- Periodical counselling by the Mentors and the Coordinator helped in making the programmes successful.
- Staff was considerate in rendering their financial support.
- The college Management contributes finances to meet the requirement of selected sectors in need.
- Nevertheless, conscious efforts are taken by the committee to reach out to the different organizations every year.
- During Pandemic Covid-19, the Management extended the helping hands by distributing the provisions, Masks and Sanitizers.
- In the following two years, as it was not desirable for the students to visit in big numbers to any organization, only the Student and Staff representatives visited along with the Management donated the purchased provisions and contributed amount to the organizations who are in need.
